8 Dermatologists Share the Products They've Been Using for 10-Plus Years

A long time coming.

By Olivia Wohlner, Editorial Assistant · May 7, 2021

Dermatologists are among the most reliable sources for skin-care advice, so when they tell us they've been using a specific product or brand for 10-plus years, we know it's the best of the best.

“I use sunscreen daily. I love Colorscience Sunforgettable Total Protection SPF 50 ($65), which is chemical-free and so easy to reapply every two to three hours. The powder is easy to apply, leaves no grease, and is perfect for travel.

For eye cream, I love Neocutis Lumiere Firm Riche Eye Cream ($118), as it contains growth factors and peptides to reduce fine lines, puffiness, and dark circles. I also love Neocutis Bio Serum Firm Rejuvenating Growth Factor & Peptide Treatment ($275) because it has improved the texture, tone and firmness of my skin.”

—Fresno, CA dermatologist Q Kathleen Behr, MD
